A warm welcome to ENCÁNTALA La Palma, here ...

... we practice loving acceptance. Encantala means "love it".

... you are welcome with all your feelings, desires, questions and longings.

... you are invited to behave in a loving way with yourself, others and all beings and things.

... we focus on expressing ourselves in authentic, peaceful, alive, healthy and conscious ways.

... the group-times in the seminar-free times are the heart of how we wanna be together.

... you are welcome to be as naked as you like, as a way to love and accept what you are.

... we respect different lifestyles by remaining clothed where we can be seen from the outside.

... there is no space for cynism, sarcasm, being mean and insensitive comments

... we live completely free of alcohol, smoking and TV. There is a place to smoke outside the center.
